Pennock Center offers no-cost teen group

Pennock Center has joined with the Brighton Youth Commission to offer a no-cost group where teens can learn about balance and gain support as they attempt to balance the demands and pressures in their lives.

"Summer is here but the demands on kids don't necessarily go away," states a news release from Pennock Center, announcing a program for youth 13-18, to be held on Tuesdays in June beginning June 5 – from noon to 1 p.m.

"We know that adolescents feel their own share of stress and experience challenges," the release continued. "Summer is a good time to hone those skills we all need for coping with stress."

Emmy Crouter, who holds a master's degree in social work, will facilitate the group, which will focus on balancing the demands of school, family, and peers and will be an outlet for kids struggling with depression, anxiety, and stress, among other challenges.

The informal, supportive group program provides free lunch weekly

Tribute Concert returns to Armory in June

For a second consecutive year, three bands will bring a Tribute Concert to the Armory Performing Arts Center, this year featuring the music of Prince, War, Tower of Power, El Chicano and Tierra.

June 16, from 7 to 10 p.m., the Brighton Cultural Arts Commission and the city of Brighton will host the concert that will lure people with a broad taste in music to the venue at 300 Strong St.

Bands playing on the Armory stage include:

- Paizley Park, a tribute to the music of Prince: Experience the timeless music of Prince in a simulation of decades of musical brilliance, mystery and artistry. Phillip Jordan and Paizley Park take you on a musical journey of the Purple Legend.

- Cisco's Kids, a tribute to the music of War: Just as in 1969, the message of peace, unity and brotherhood is relevant, and what better way to deliver the word than through the funk-jazz-Latin-reggae-street-infused music of War. Each of the 9 musicians who comprise Cisco's Kids is passionate about replicating the feel and the vibe from the band that created an unforgettable soundtrack in the late '60s. So fire up the Low Rider, try Slippin' Into Darkness, throw out a peace sign and prepare for (the music of) War, and don't Spill the Wine.

- Legends, a tribute to the music of Tower of Power, El Chicano and Tierra: Old school at its best! Chase, of Chase 'N' the Dream, and the Lucero Twinz will perform hits by Tower of Power and Tierra. Tina Navarro will sing El Chicano's hit Sabor A Mi, with Manuel Molina on guitar and Janine Santana on congas.

Tickets, on sale now, can be purchased ($20 general admission, $30 VIP) tickets) by visiting www.brighton-armory.org. Day-of-show admission will be $25 at the door; seating is limited.

For more information contact David Gallegos at 303-655-2140 or dgallegos@brightonco.gov.

The Tribute Concert is made possible through collaboration with the Scientific and Cultural Facilities District, Brighton Arts and Culture, Armory Performing Arts Center and the Brighton Cultural Arts Commission.
