Funeral notices

Jack D. Bloom, 81, of Brighton, died July 10. He was born in San Francisco to Mable Hartley Moore and Theodore Bloom. Jack grew up in the Denver area, attended West High School and joined the Marines in 1955. He served the Marines for eight years, four years active duty and four years reserves. He was an IBEW Local 68 electrician for nearly 50 years. Jack married Kathy Arnold in 1963. In 1974, the family moved to a 35-acre farm in Brighton, from Northglenn. Jack and his family started River's Bend Farm, where they hosted corporate company picnics on their property. Jack loved fishing, backpacking, and exploring the national parks and Colorado mountains. He found peace in the stillness of the backcountry. He was known for his work ethic, independence and willingness to finish every task at hand without complaint. He battled Parkinson's disease for more than 25 years, but that didn't stop him from projects on the farm. Baking bagels and cooking green chile were among Jack's hidden talents. Survivors include his wife, Kathy Bloom of Brighton; daughter Jane (Ed) Fuller of Erie, son Greg (Christy) Bloom of Lone Tree, and son David Bloom of Castle Rock; twin brother Jerry (Sharon) Bloom of Northglenn; sisters Joyce Clark of Montrose and Colleen (John) Trotter of Casper, Wyo.; 11 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Celebration of life, 11 a.m., July 20, at Harvest Fellowship Church. Tabor-Rice Funeral Home in charge of the arrangements.

Katherine R. Burke, 60, of Brighton, died July 9. She was born in California to LeRoy and Shirley (Long) Schissler. Kathy moved to Brighton in 1967, attended Brighton schools and graduated from Brighton High School in 1976. She married Dan Burke in 1975, in Brighton. To the marriage were born two children: Ryan and Lindsey. Kathy worked for Adams County as a telecommunications specialist for more than 20 years. She was especially proud and supportive of her son's motorcycle road racing and her daughter, Lindsey, was her best friend. She was very fond of her dogs, Doohan and Nikki. Family and friends were everything to Kathy, while her granddaughter, Calli, was the light of her life. Memorial service, 10 a.m. Saturday, at Tabor-Rice Funeral Home
